

Rushlights

by Paul Booth

"A superb, tense & mind-blowing thriller. Great performances all around. Especially Beau Bridges who delivers more than the Hollywood cliché sheriff."

Paul Booth, Influx Magazine

A superb, tense, mind-blowing and well directed thriller that revolves around two teen's Billy (Josh Henderson, TV's Dallas) and Sarah (Haley Webb, Final Destination) that travel from Los Angeles to a small southern town to claim a dead friends inheritance under false pretenses.

Excellent pacing, a solid screenplay and wonderful scenes between the young leads and film legends Beau Bridges (Oscar-winning films Jerry Maguire, The Descendants) and Aidan Quinn (Looking for Richard).

Beau Bridges as Sheriff Robert Brogden Jr. is my favorite with a powerful screen presence and performance.

I highly recommend this film and was glad to see it as part of The Newport Beach Film Festival.
